EARLY CHILDHOOD

Cathy Wilson, Division Head

Dear Early Childhood Parents,

It was wonderful seeing our friends back at school this week. I was overloaded with the sweetest little welcome back hugs and smiles in our hallway. I would like to say thank you to all of our parents for getting all of our students ready to get back to work!

It seems like we have finally gotten our cold weather. Please remember to label all coats, sweaters, and sweatshirts with your child's name. We try to return any items with a name inside them. Please encourage your child to keep up with their belongings.

Our Admissions office will be hosting an Early Childhood Come and Play Day on Thursday, January 14th, at 8:15 in the Early Childhood hallway. We will begin with chapel then off to classrooms to get the feel of what an Early Childhood classroom is really like. If you know of anyone who would be interested in attending please have them contact the Admissions office at 291-2500 extension 104. Please let others know how much you love your school!

Monday, January 18th, PBS will be closed in observance of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day. Of course Holiday Camp will be offered with many fun things planned. You can register online by clicking here and paper forms will be sent home on Monday. Please register your child by this Friday, January 15. I would like to encourage you to send your students to holiday camp when you can, as some of the money earned will be used in helping with our Missions Trips. We will not have a March Professional Development Day.

Please check your emails and your child's folders for events that will happen this month. We have many things planned in all of our grade levels. There is nothing like being in Early Childhood.

In Christ,

Cathy Wilson, Early Childhood Division Head

ELEMENTARY

Jeff Lilley, Division Head

Dear Elementary Parents,

It was great having our students back this week. With our return to school, we also found that winter weather has found its way back to Louisiana. Please remember to label all outerwear items with your child's name. We try to return any items with a name inside. Also, keep in mind that we do still go outside on days that are pretty cool. It is important that students dress appropriately for the weather. Layering is best as our temperatures do tend to warm up in the later part of the day.

Congratulations to Molly Mae McPherson, Ella Chapman, Ajharee DeGray, Avery Crawford who competed in the PBS spelling bee on Friday morning. These ladies competed in their classrooms and won the honor of competing at the school wide spelling bee. I am so proud of the hard work each of our students and especially these young ladies. Congratulations to Hannah Gummadi (7th grade), who will represent PBS at the next level of competition at Southeastern University in March. Please keep her in your prayers as she represents our school.

Next Friday, January 15, Ms. Rivers will host an accelerated reader party from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. Our students have been eagerly reading to participate in the accelerated reader program. It is so fun to watch their excitement grow about reading and even more fun to reward them for a job well done. Please continue to encourage your child to read each day. This will help them to be more successful in their academic endeavors. While the students will continue their weekly visits to our library, they really enjoy the experience of visiting the public library or a local bookstore. This is just one more opportunity to encourage them to develop a love for reading.

Tuesday, January 12 from 8:30 a.m. to noon, our Admissions office will be hosting an open house for prospective families interested in Parkview Baptist School. If you know of someone interested in our school, please have them contact the Admissions office at 291-2500 extension 104. We would love to share more about our PBS family and programs with them soon.

Monday, January 18, Parkview Baptist School will be closed in observance of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day. Holiday camp will be offered, and you can register via the links above.

MIDDLE SCHOOL

Joana Dieterich, Division Head

Dear Middle School Parents,

This week Middle School students represented their Language and Literature class in the school spelling bee. After many rounds and many words I couldn't spell myself, Hannah Gummadi was selected as the Parkview Baptist Spelling Bee winner. Congratulations to her and all the students that participated in the spelling bee.

5th grade: Jake Mathis, Matthew Melancon, Olivia Hebert, Georgia Lauve

6th grade: Jolie Bermes, Julia Strain, Nate Goza, Lauren Chumbley, Allison Gammon

7th grade: Ashlin Day, Harper Burns, Kate Kratzberg, Hannah Gummadi

8th grade: Nic Noe, Colin Cook, Amanda Carambat, Chase Sanders, Maddie Tuttle

Hannah will now represent PBS at the regional Spelling Bee where the winner will advance to the state Spelling Bee with the opportunity to continue to the National Spelling Bee. Good Luck Hannah! We know you will represent Parkview well.

Our Geaux Conference (formally known as Spiritual Emphasis week) will be held January 19-22. Our fifth grade students will rotate through four breakout sessions focusing on missions while the sixth through eighth grade students will be able to select the breakout sessions they would like to attend. Students will make their selections this week during their classes. Please pray for this important time in our students' spiritual development.

Blessings,

Joana Dieterich, Middle School Division Head

HIGH SCHOOL

Ben D. Haindel, Division Head

Dear High School Parents,

We're off to a tremendous start as we enter the second week of the spring semester. It was wonderful having our students back in the classrooms and hallways even though getting back into the school routine was tough. It did not take long before we were all back in sync and looking forward to an exciting new semester.

A few significant events will be taking place in the next couple weeks that I wanted to highlight. A very important meeting for our junior and senior parents will take place Monday night at 7:00 pm in the Sanctuary. Representatives from the Louisiana Office of Student Financial Assistance (LOFSA) will be presenting vital information on college acceptance and financial aid. For more information, please contact our College Advisor, Mrs. Jessica Shelton, at Jessica.shelton@parkviewbaptist.com.

Our Beta Club members will be participating and competing in the Beta Club State Convention this week. This is a great opportunity for our students to compete in a variety of competitions ranging from spelling to oratory to math and science. Please keep Mrs. Becky Talbot, our Beta Club Sponsor, and our students in your prayers this week as they travel to Lafayette for the convention.

Next week, our students will participate in "Geaux!" which will challenge our students to grow spiritually and deepen their faith in Jesus Christ. Area youth pastors and teachers will be conducting small group sessions on a wide variety of topics geared toward challenging our students to grow in their faith. This week, our students will be selecting which sessions they would like to attend. I am very excited about this opportunity for our students, and I invite you to join me in praying for the Holy Spirit to accomplish a mighty work in our students next week.

Be sure to check in with your children in all aspects ... spiritually, academically, and socially ... over the next couple weeks. With the fresh start of a new year, we have a vital opportunity to set a successful pace for the upcoming year. As parents, our children are constantly watching our actions and attitudes. More often than not, what we DO speaks volumes more than what we SAY. Let's set a solid example for them to follow as we follow the example of Christ.

Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ. – I Corinthians 11:1
