English I Honors: And Then There Were None by Agatha Christie (copyright 2011 or later)
AND Around the World in Eighty Days by Jules Verne

English I CP and Honors Students,

A few days after school begins, you will take a test over your summer reading book(s). Be sure you have finished reading the book(s) assigned for your class. (All 9th graders in CP and Honors read And Then There Were None, and Honors also read Around the World in Eighty Days.) You should know the characters, the plot, and information or details from the storyline. If you annotated or underlined information in the book(s) as you read, it would be a good idea to review that information before the test(s). If you don't remember what you read, then you probably need to read it again.

Important information is included in the "Epilogue" and in "A Manuscript Document Sent to Scotland Yard by the Master of the Emma Jane, Fishing Trawler" which you should locate at the end of And Then There Were None. Be sure you read those last two parts as well because they contain vital info!!!!
